NEXT YEAR - 100th Celebration: As part of the countdown to the 100th Anniversary of St. Michael's, the Centennial Committee is asking long time Parishioners to be interviewed and tell us their stories of days past in the Church. Some of those memories will be shared in the weekly bulletin under the title: 'I remember when.'

I remember when St. Michael's Church was on Livernois in Detroit; Father John Lampart was the pastor, Prof. Beskidniak the choir director, and Russian Christmas was on January 7th. A small community of church members lived in the neighborhood and Saint Catherine's (Abick's Café) was the watering hole. On Christmas Day the choir went house to house caroling. St. Michael's parish members welcomed the carolers – first to enter the home for good luck. Happy faces for all as the traditional Russian hymns were sung; ending with a soulful 'Silent Night'. Then, home baked goodies, and for the adults - some Christmas Cheer. A small choir donation was added. Then, it was on to the next house to share more of the Russian spirit of Christmas with good hearted parishioners.
